

#Person1#: Hello, Sara are you finished packing yet? Do you need a hand? #Person2#: Thanks. Dad, but I can manage it myself. #Person1#: Make sure you have your ID card. You will need it while you travel. #Person2#: Yes, I know. The problem is that I can't find it. Where did you put it? #Person1#: All your important documents and certificates should be in the desk drawer. #Person2#: Oh, yes, here it is. #Person1#: Sara? #Person2#: What's up? #Person1#: Did you buy a map? Traveling can be really inconvenient without one, and you could even wind up lost #Person2#: No. Dad. We have a tour guide. #Person1#: Also, take these pills in case you have any airsickness, and take some cold medicine, too. How about some band-aids? #Person2#: No, I won't get sick. I promise. Ok. I've finished. Bye, Dad. See you! #Person1#: Take care, dear! Be careful! Oh Sara, wait a minute! You forget your raincoat and umbrella. #Person2#: Dad, that's all right. I don't think it will rain. And it doesn't make any sense to take that many things on a trip. Besides I like to travel light. Bye!
